FAYETTEVILLE DISPENSARY.

Favorable Action of Senate Judiciary Committee Yesterday.

The question of leaving the Cumberland dispensary matter to a vote of the people, after being adversely disposed of by the house, came up before the senate judiciary committee yesterday evening in the form of a substitute bill introduced by Senator Williams. Many representatives for and against the dispensary were present, and divided in war-like attitude on either side of the senate chamber. Personalities of a drastic nature were so frequent that Chairman Skinner several times interposed on points of order. Senator Williams spoke for his bill and declared that the democratic party was pledged to leave the dispensary matter to a vote of the people of Cumberland. He characterized the dispensary as an institution saddled upon Cumberland in revenge for the defeat of the Sutton-Wemyss police bill, two years ago.

Representative Robinson said he was in favor of the bill and that the interests of the democratic party were jeoparized if it did not carry out its promises against trusts and monopolies for local self-government. Geo. M. Rose was for leaving the dispensary to a popular vote. He said it was not a matter of sentiment or morals for legislative consideration, but purely a fullfilment of a political contract, and anything short of this would be an act of bad faith. He was supported by E. J. Hale, who submitted a petition of 1,200 citizens and letters from county officials asking that the question be solved by a local vote and stating that Mr. Robinson's bill is the embodiment of the democratic purpose. Similar speeches were made by W. H. Huske, chairman of the democratic executive committee of Cumberland county; Representative Ray and others.

Dr. J. W. McNeill read a petition from 1,667 citizens of Cumberland, requesting the legislature to take no action which will restore liquor saloons, and stating that 1,900 negro voters hold the balance of power and will swing in line with the liquor men when it comes to a vote. This argument and the evils of the saloon were the contentions of the dispensary people, who, in speech-making were further represented by John Oates, S. B. Newton and Evangelist Leavitt. The committee decided by a vote of 6 to 1, in favor of the dispensary as it now stands, without leaving the question to a vote.

To My Patrons.

On last Saturday I had the misfortune to have my bake oven cave in. I had it repaired, as I thought, but after building a fire it caved in again. I saw that unless I could arrange with a competitor to supply me I would be forced to disappoint my customers. This I made futile attempts to do, making several different propositions, even offering the regular retail price, but all were refused. This is my excuse for not being able to make my rounds on Monday, Tuesday and today.

I will tomorrow (Thursday) be on my accustomed rounds with a fresh stock of the best baked bread in the city; also pies and cakes. You will find fresh bread, pies, cakes and sweet milk at my headquarters at C. E. Pugh's; also bread, cakes and pies at W. S. Kivett's and D. E. Godfrey's.

John O'Connor.

McAlister-Burwell.

The marriage of Mr. C. C. McAlister, of Asheboro, and Miss Ella Armistead Burwell, of Statesville, was solemnized in the Presbyterian church in the latter city yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Mr. McAlister is a brother of our esteemed and valued townsman, A. W. McAlister, and the bride is one of Statesville's brightest and most beautiful young ladies. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for New Orleans and other southern cities on their bridal tour.

The Telegram extends congratulations and best wishes.

The Force Inadequate.

In spite of the reputation of Greensboro as a law abiding community, there are times when the police force is inadequate. Greensboro is much larger than it used to be and it has only six policemen, two of whom Messrs. Weatherly and Whittington, are on day duty, and four, Messrs. Jordan, Scott, Pearce and Jeffries, are on night duty. It is very easy and convenient to say the police do not do their duty, while it is only just to them to recognize the fact that two, nor even four men can be all over town at the same time.

Mrs. Lake and Dr. Geisel Here.

Mrs. Lake and Dr. Geisel arrived on the noon train. The subject tonight at Grace Methodist Protestant church will be "A cry from the Great Deep."

The subject tomorrow (Thursday) night, at Centenary will be "The Affairs of Our Kingdom." This meeting for adults.

The mothers' meeting has been postponed to 3 p. m. tomorrow at Centenary. Evening services commence at 8 o'clock.

MORE THAN THREE FOURTHS

Of The White Voters of Greensboro Want The Dispensary.

THE MEETING AT COURT HOUSE.

Resolutions Adopted—Names of Those Who Volunteered to Accompany Petitions to Raleigh.

A meeting in regard to the dispensary movement was held at the court house last night, and Mr. E. J. Stafford was chosen chairman Opponents of the measure had been invited to be present and discuss the question; but as at former meetings no one came. It had been said and the report was widely circulated that many who had signed the petitions for the dispensary were not satisfied and wanted their names taken off. Announcement was made in the daily papers that all who wanted their names erased could be accommodated by attending this meeting and so requesting.

Yet not a man appeared!

Hon. A. M. Scales spoke in reference to the recent changes in the dispensary bill and stated that a hearing would be accorded us in this matter by the legislative committee tomorrow at 3 p. m. He was followed by Rev. Dr. Smith, Rev. J. D. Miller, Rev. L Johnson, J. S. Hunter, T. A. Lyon, Wm. Love and others.

The following resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, more than three fourths of the white registered voters of Greensboro have signed a petition to the general assembly to establish a dispensary at Greensboro, and, whereas, our representatives at Raleigh are not disposed to lend their support to the measure without submitting it to a popular vote, and, whereas, a proposition has been made to said representatives to ascertain the will of the people by submitting the dispensary plan to a vote of the white people in a primary to be held by the board of aldermen, and, whereas, this proposition has been declined; now, therefore be it resolved,

1st. That it is the sense of this meeting that in view of the fact that our representatives at Raleigh were elected by white people upon a white supremacy platform, it is their duty to respect and represent the will of their white constituency.

2nd. That a strong delegation of the constituents of the said representatives repair in a body to Raleigh on Thursday next, and exhibit to them the list of petitioners and demonstrate to them by this and other evidence that a large majority of the white voters of Greensboro who voted for them desire to avoid a popular election on the dispensary and are unwilling to enter into such a demoralizing contest as would follow if the negro is permitted to cast the deciding vote.

3rd. That we recognize the influence and respect the authority of our representatives at Raleigh, and disclaim any desire to ignore the one and run counter to the other, if such extreme necessity can be avoided, and it is the sense of this meeting that every effort shall be exhausted to secure their cooperation.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to our representatives at Raleigh and published in daily papers of Greensboro.

Mr. J. S. Hunter then stated that it was important that a large delegation go down to Raleigh and appear before the committee when the petitions are presented. The following immediately volunteered to go:

Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith.
Rev. J. D. Miller.
Rev. L. Johnson.
Rev. Dr. F. H. Wood.
J. S. Hunter.
A. M. Scales.
A. W. McAlister.
E. J. Stafford,
R. W. Brooks,
William Love,
W. C. Bain,
J. W. Merritt,
W. D. Mendenhall,
G. Will Armfield,
R. M. Phillips,
T. A. Lyon,
W. S. Moore,
C. H. Dorsett,
M. C. Workman,
J. Van Lindley,
E. E. Bain,
J. M. Burton, Summerfield.
J. S. Ragsdale, Jamestown.

Rev. J. D. Miller agreed to pay the expenses of one man. W. S. Moore subscribed $5.00 toward paying the expenses of another.

The party will leave for Raleigh on the 8:10 train tomorrow morning. The petitions to be carried down contain the names of over three-fourths of the white voters of Greensboro. Every man who feels an intesest in the movement is invited to go. A strong petition will be presented. Let's back it up by a strong delegation.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Appropriations For N. C. Public Buildings—Other Matters.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 8—Consideration of the river and harbor bill was begun yesterday afternoon by the senate committee on commerce. Daily sessions of the committee will be held until Thursday afternoon, and all senators who desire to be heard, accompanied by delegations from various sections of the country, will be granted the opportunity. The south is vitally interested in the river and harbor bill, and it is expected that within the time allotted many representatives from this section will be heard. Senator Pritchard, it is understood will appear before the committee for the purpose of urging the several amendments in which the state is interested and which have been referred to from time to time.

The hearings on the river and harbor bill will close Thursday afternoon and the committee will then proceed to the work of preparing the measure. It is expected that it will be reported to the senate perhaps next week. Senator Frye, of Maine, is the chairman of the commerce committee. The southern senators on the committee are Vest, of Missouri, Berry, of Arkansas, Pasco, of Florida, Caffrey, of Louisiana and Mills, of Texas.

In the house numerous bills reported from the house committee on public buildings and grounds, are under consideration and will pass the house, two days, including yesterday having been set apart by the house for their consideration. It is said that the aggregate appropriations carried by the various bills amounts to somewhere in the neighborhood of eleven millions of dollars.

Among the bills passed is one for Elizabeth City, appropriating $50.000.

Other bills for public buildings of interest to North Carolina are as follows: Winston, $50,000, and Durham, $50,000. Both of these bills will probably pass the house.

In executive session this afternoon the case of Judge Ewart, which has been pending for so long a time, is expected to be called up. Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, chairman of the senate committee on judiciary gave notice to this effect, as reported, several days ago. The consideration of the case will be postponed from day to day, until final action is secured, which may not be until near the close of the session. Senator Pritchard stated yesterday afternoon that there has been no change in the situation. He still hopes for confirmation. The fight in the senate against Ewart will be led by Senator Butler, while the contest for confirmation will be led by Senator Pritchard. Both of the North Carolina senators are expected to address the Senate on the nomination before the vote is reached.

Representative Kitchin, of North Carolina, has introduced in the house a bill for the relief of Charles W. Johnson, administrator of Mrs. Lydia Johnson.

Mr. Kitchin has also presented papers relating to the claim of Ledia Johnston, of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, which have been referred to the committee on war claims.

Senator Butler is still engaged in presenting petitions in favor of the passage of the bill to establish postal savings bank depositories. His latest petition is from Copalgrove, N. C., and is signed by C. H. Ridenhour, and some 200 other citizens of the town.

Change in star schedule—Henrietta to Henrietta station, North Carolina, has been ordered as follows: Leave Henrietta twice daily except Sunday in time to connect with mail trains. Return same day. Running time each way not to exceed one and one half hours. Take effect Feqruary 8th.

H. F. Brown, of Raleigh, N. C., was in Washington yesterday on personal business. He was stopping while in the city at the National hotel.

THEIR FIGHTING QUALITIES

A Revefation to All Philippine Inhabitants.

OTIS CABLES ALL IS QUIET.

Business is Resumed and the Natives are Respectful and Cheerful. Situation Improving.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, Feb. 8—A small incursion of small bodies of insurgents has taken place resulting in the retirement of the Nebraskan outposts from Santa Mesa. This took place yesterday and created some excitement last night, but not a shot was fired and matters were amicably adjusted The Filipinos arrest all Americans within their lines. Several of our soldiers are reported missing but there is no official confirmation of this report. The situation is sufficiently critical to warrant the reissuance of the emergency orders.

The recently converted gunboat is patrolling the river nightly, having a good effect on the natives. She carries two six pounders forward, two Nordenfelt amidships and four gatlins in an improved turret aft. She has a crew of sixty. The insurgents continue the concentration of forces around the city and the latest addition is a body of two hundred naked Ygorates armed wit spears and stationed at Colooacan The native papers make a great fuss over these volunteers.

FROM OTIS TODAY.

Washington, Feb. 8—The following from General Otis was received at the war department today:

"Manila, Feb, 8—The situation is rapidly improving. A reconnaissance yesterday south several miles and east to Lagunario Bay, northeast eight miles driving the straggling insurgents in various directions encountered no decided opposition. The army has disintegrated and the natives are returning to the villege displaying white flags. Near Calooacan the enemy made a standard six miles morth behind entrenchments. The Kansans, led by Col. Funston, charge close encountering the enemy and putting them to route with very heavy loss.

"The Kansans lost Lieutenant Alfred killed, and six wounded. On the night of the 4th Aguinaldo issued a proclamation charging the Americans with the initiative and declared war. On Sunday he issued another calling on all to resist foreign invasion. His influence in this section is destroyed and he now applies for a cessation of hostilities, and asks for a conference, which I decline toanswer. The insurgents' expectations were rising on the night of the 4th but unrealized. The provost marshal with admirable disposition of troops defeated every attempt. Thecity is quiet and business has been resumed. The natives are respectful and and cheerful and the fighting qualities of the American troops are a revelation to all inhabitants."

AGONCILLO HEARD FROM.

London, Feb. 8—The Filipino junta here has received a cablegram from Agoncillo at Montreal under date of the 7th, in which he "deplores the hostilities which have had the effect of securing a ratification of the peace treaty." Agoncillo says he believes the outbreak was caused by the Americans to ensure the treaty ratification and declares the Filipinos were "far from being the aggressors and that they were taken by surprise while unprepared."

AGUINALDO DEMORALIZED.

London, Feb. 8. 2 p. m.—Authorative reports just received here state that Aguinaldo is demoralized at the Filipino reverses and asks a conference with Otis with a view of suspending hostilities.

Will Take Iloilo.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 8—Important news concerning Iloilo has been received from Gen. Otis today and there is reason to believe he has sent reinforcements to General Miller with instruction to demand surrender and if refused to take the town by force.

Market Reports Again.

Messrs. Paine, Murphy & Co., of Washington city and correspondents of Purnell, Hagaman & Co., Munn Sons & Co., and H. Runaway Couple From Danville Meet Bitter Disappointment.

A runaway couple from Danville came in on the southbound local this morning and going to the Allen house for breakfast, obtained the proprietor's promise to have a preacher there in a certain length of time, to tie the holy, inseperable knot. They expected no trouble in securing license, but their matrimonial anticipations were knocked sky high when Mr. Kirkman refused to issue them license under any condition, other than the written consent of the parents of the anxious-to-be-bride. The young couple waxed exceeding warm and paid their respects to Guilford's register of deeds in no uncertain terms. The would-be-groome was Luther Morefield and the young lady who fain would change her name, Miss Annie Hood. With a determination to change it before sundown, she and her will-be "hubby" left Mr. Kirkman to recover from the shock.

Road Nearing Completion.

Prof. J. M. Bandy, civil engineer on the Cape Fear & Northern railroad who has been spending a few days at home here, returned to his work this morning. Prof. Bandy tells a reporter that the entire road has been graded and fifteen of the twenty miles of track laid. If the weather is not so disagreeable as to prevent work the road will be completed and trains running within two weeks. After completing his work on the road Prof. Bandy has a contract to fill in Raleigh.

His Best Invention.

Of all the grand inventions Edison has yet put out the graphophone-grand is the the most wonderful. It reproduces sound with as much volume and distinctness as the original. There is but one of these instruments in the south and only fourteen have so far been manufactured. See and hear it at the opera house Thursday and Friday nights. Admission 25 cents. Two ladies or a lady and gentleman will be admitted on one paid ticket.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 8, 1899.

Procrastination, the thief of time, should be arrested and banished from the corporate limits of Greensboro. There is much to be done here yet before we reach the position as a city that we are destined to reach. There are streets to grade, sidewalks to build, old houses to tear down and new ones to build. A gentleman asked us yesterday: How about those small store rooms you are advocating, suitable for candy shops, jewelry, bicycle, sewing machine, small grocery and other small enterprises? Any prospect of getting them built? And we, in turn, ask our progressive moneyed men: How about it?

It has been charged the Fayetteville dispensary bill was a "Sutton measure" and was put upon the people because the democrats of Fayetteville went up to Raleigh in 1897 and defeated Mr. Sutton's police bill. In yesterday's Daily Reporter, Ex-Senator J. McP. Geddie, who introduced the bill, tells the history of it, and says that Mr. Sutton was not consulted in regard to it, and that his only assistant was a Cumberland democrat, backed by over one thousand petitioners. Mr. Geddie closes his letter with the following ringing words:

I am glad to say that a majority of the legislature of 1897 rose above party when a question like the dispensary confronted them and rallied to the rescue of those who were pleading in behalf of morality, sobriety, and the poor unfortunate ones who had fallen victims to the drink habit. I am also glad to see that the present house of representatives has exhibited the same spirit when questions for the improvement of the morals of our land confront them, and I cannot believe that the senate will prove themselves less loyal to the good people of the state of North Carolina, who are pleading and praying for the restriction of the liquor traffic, the greatest curse of our land.

Washington's Tomb.

Washington was buried in what is now known as the old vault, which is perhaps 200 feet away from his present resting place. Before his death he had requested that a new family vault be constructed after his decease, and the reason given for this is that the earth upon the side of the hill where the old vault was placed was likely to slip away in the springtime.

No attention was apparently paid to this request, however, until about 1880, when an employee who had been discharged from the estate broke into the old tomb as an act of revenge and stole a skull which he supposed to be that of George Washington. This he took to Alexandria, and, as usual in such cases, "got drunk," and so his secret was discovered, and the skull, which proved to be that of Laurence Washington instead, was returned.

This incident led to the final carrying out of the wish of General Washington. The tomb which is his present resting place was promptly built, and in 1881 his remains were removed to it. The old vault was allowed to fall into a state of decay, and only a few years ago it was restored by the aid of drawings found in the congressional library. An iron fence has been built around it, and it now receives the same care as the new tomb.—Exchange.

A Greek Colony In Corsica.

At Cargese we have the remakable spectacle of a Greek population with its own church settled down on the coast of Corsica. Our inn is kept by a Greek from Corfu, as his name, Corfiotti, tells us and as the loquacity of his wife would lead us to infer; for at Cargese the Corsican taciturnity has given place to the Hellenic love of talk. Rather more than two centuries ago a Greek settlement was founded in Corsica under the auspices of the Genoese republic, to which the island at that time belonged, and when the French came into possession of the country they established the Hellenic exiles, who had meanwhile founded the Chapelle des Grecs just outside Ajaccio at Cargese and built them the church which they have ever since cherished.

Intermarriages between the colonists and the natives, at first rare, have now become frequent, and it is to be feared that the Greek language will soon become as extinct there as the fustanella. But with that wonderful tenacity which it shows in modern Greece, in spite of centuries of barbarian inroads and Turkish oppression, the Greek type is sure to remain at Cargese to remind the traveler of its eternal youth and its unfailing characteristics.—Westminster Review.

Julius Cæsar.

Of all great conquerors, writes Marion Crawford in "Studies From the Chronicles of Rome," he was the least cruel, for he never sacrificed human life without the direct intention of benefiting mankind by an increased social stability. Of all great lawgivers, he was the most wise and just, and the truths he set down in the Julian code are the foundation of modern justice. Of all great men who have leaped upon the world as upon an unbroken horse, who have guided it with relentless hands and ridden it breathless to the goal of glory, Cæsar is the only one who turned the race into the track of civilization and, dying, left mankind a future in the memory of his past. He is the one great man of all without whom it is impossible to imagine history. We cannot take him away and yet leave anything of what we have. The world could have been as it is without Alexander, without Charlemagne, without Napoleon. It could not have been the world we know without Caius Julius Cæsar.

It Was Ordered.

In the biography of Prince Bismarck it is said that when he was minister at St. Petersburg he was walking one morning in the summer garden and met the czar, who invited him to join him.

Presently Bismarck noticed a sentry stationed in the middle of a large grass plot and asked the aid-de-camp, who in turn inquired of the sentry.

"It is ordered," was his reply.

Every official gave the same answer, "It is ordered," but nobody knew by whom. A sentry had always stood guard in the middle of that innocent grass plot. The archives were searched, but in vain. At last an aged official was found, who had been told by his father that the Empress Catherine had once seen a snowdrop ready to bloom in the spot, and had ordered a sentry to stand guard and allow no one to pluck it. For more than a century the watch had been maintained because "it was ordered," and no one had ever thought of disobeying or of questioning the reason of the order.

Prompt Settlement.

The Salisbury Cotton mill has received a check from T. B. Marsh, agent for the Southern Stock Mutual Insurance Company in payment of a loss which occurred a few days ago.

This is one of the most prompt settlements of the kind which has ever been made in Salisbury. This is promptness without discount.—Salisbury Sun.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

AS TO SPARTANBURG.

Manufacturing, Etc. Increased 50 Per Cent Under Dispensary.

Mr. Editor—Here are answers from the superior court clerk of Spartanburg, S. C. You remember that it has been circulated by some that Spartanburg had gone backward since the dispensary law went into effect, but here are the facts Read them:

Does it increase or decrease drinking?

Decreases it.

What effect does it have on the morals of the community?

A wonderful effect.

State whether or not it decreases crime and cost of criminal proceedings, jail expenses, etc?

By inforcing the dispensary law it has increased the court expenses, but outside of that crime has decreased.

State whether or not it removes to any extent temptation from the young?

It certainly does.

Has it retarded the growth of your city?

No.

Has business been injured by it?

No.

How does the revenue received from it compare with that received under the saloon system?

Saloon paid $1,000 each. Under our law state gets one-half of profits, city one-fourth, county one-fourth.

Has it grown in favor with the people?

Yes.

Has your city advanced in manufacturing, commerce, wealth and population within the past five years? What per cent?

Increased in all at least 50 per cent.

Respectfully,
T. R. Trimmier, Clerk.
Spartanburg, Feb 6th, 1899.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, editor of the Micanopy (Fla.) Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe and its exhausting after effects. Never fails. Howard Gardner.

Sacrificed to Blood Poison.

Those who have never had Blood Poison can not know what a desperate condition it can produce. This terrible disease which the doctors are totally unable to cure, is communicated from one generation to another, inflicting its taint upon countless innocent ones.

Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. The little one was unequal to the struggle, and its life was yielded up to the fearful poison. For six long years I suffered untold misery. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and no language can express my feelings of woe during those long years. I had the best medical treatment. Several physicians successively treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by it, to try Swift's Specific. We got two bottles, and I felt hope again revive in my breast—hope for health and happiness again. I improved from the start, and a complete and perfect cure was the result. S. S. S. is the only blood remedy which reaches desperate cases.
MRS. T. W. LEE,
Montgomery, Ala.

Of the many blood remedies, S. S. S. is the only one which can reach deep-seated, violent cases. It never fails to cure perfectly and permanently the most desperate cases which are beyond the reach of other remedies.

Bloodhounds.

The gentleness of bloodhound disposition is probably accounted for by their not having been used to hunt and kill prey. One of the most ancient anecdotes of these dogs attributes the capture of a fugitive to the use of his own bloodhound. The name itself is probably a modern one, based on a vulgar error that the dogs only followed persons who were "red handed" from homicide or who had about them the smell of recently killed sheep. The ancient name was lyme dog or talbot, which latter appears to have been a white variety of bloodhound.

The Cuban bloodhounds, which were used for hunting slaves by the Spaniards and were imported into Jamaica, were not bloodhounds at all, but a cross between the mastiff and bulldog, or perhaps the "dogue" of Bordeaux. They were brindled, prick eared, and doubtless horribly savage. They were, however, used as "police," and, like the bloodhounds on the border, were maintained in every parish in Jamaica, where it was the duty of the churchwardens to keep them at the expense of the community.

Some of these dogs were kept in London during the early days of the zoological gardens. The stories of their ferocity are probably not exaggerated, though Lord Balcarres, who imported 200 of them into Jamaica to aid in subduing the maroons, never used them. He frightened the negroes into submission by circulating the stories current about the dogs.—London Spectator.

Took His Wife's Advice.

When the man whose haircut showed that his wife had peculiar notions as to the way a man should dress his hair quit giving advice, one of the listeners said:

"No man has more respect for a woman than I have, but I shall never take the advice of my wife again about money matters. She insisted upon my hiding my salary, so if I should be held up the highwaymen wouldn't get it. I draw my stipend at 6 p. m., and it is quite dark before I get home. She is a good hider in the house, but her talent in that line stops there. Now, she had the brilliant idea that I should put the envelope containing my money under the sweatband of my hat. Highwaymen would never look there and would never rob a man of his hat. After she had made this suggestion about 40 times I accepted it. I went home as usual on the elevated. I had a slight attack of vertigo in the car, and the man who always knows what to do said I needed fresh air and threw up the window. In doing so he knocked off my hat. I went home bareheaded and broke."—New York Sun.

The Brave Bull, the Cruel Spaniard.

The trumpet sounds again, and the espada takes his sword and his muleta and goes out for the last scene. This, which ought to be, is not always the real climax. The bull is often by this time tired, has had enough of the sport, leaps at the barrier, trying to get out. He is tired of running after red rags, and he brushes them aside contemptuously. He can scarcely be got to show animation enough to be decently killed. But one bull that I saw was splendidly savage and fought almost to the last, running about the arena with the sword between his shoulders, and that great red line broadening down each side of his neck on the black, like a deep layer of red paint, one tricks oneself into thinking.

He carried two swords in his neck and still fought. When at last he, too, got weary he went and knelt down before the door by which he had entered and would fight no more. But they went up to him from outside the barrier and drew the swords out of him, and he got to his feet again and stood to be killed.—Saturday Review.

She Let Him Off.

One night Green came home very late and found his wife evidently prepared to administer a Caudle lecture. Instead of going to bed, he took a seat, and, resting his elbows on his knees, seemed absorbed in grief, sighing heavily and uttering such exclamations as "Poor Watkins! Poor fellow!"

Mrs. Green, moved by curiosity, said sharply, "What's the matter with Watkins?"

"Ah," said Green, "his wife is giving him fits just now."

Mrs. Green let her husband off that time.—Liverpool Mercury.

Her Tongue.

They were talking of figures of speech.

"Have you ever noticed," said one, "how fond people are of vegetable metaphors when they are dealing with a woman? Her cheeks are 'roses,' her lips are 'cherry,' her hands are always 'lily' hands, her mouth is a 'rosebud,' her complexion is 'like a peach,' and her breath is 'fragrant as honeysuckle.'"

"You've forgotten one," said the cynic.

"What's that?"

"Her tongue. It is a scarlet runner."

A Considerate Lover.

Parent—Of course, as my daughter is of age, she can suit herself as to marrying you, but the day she does I will cut her off without a penny.

Suitor (after a pause)—Well, under those circumstances, sir, we will break our engagement. I could not think of depriving a young lady of her inheritance.—Harlem Life.

Love at First Sight.

"Do you believe in love at first sight?" she asked.

"Of course," answered the savage bachelor. "Do you suppose, if a man had the gift of second sight, he would fall in love?"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Merely a Guess.

"Why do they call it the matrimonial yoke, I wonder?"

"Because there is generally a calf at one end of it, I guess."—Cleveland Leader.

NORTH CAROLINA,
GUILFORD COUNTY.

By virtue of the powers conferred upon me in a certain order made by the Superior Court of Guilford county in a cause therein pending, entitled Mrs Nellie Albright, et al., ex parte, I will, as commissioner, sell at the court house door in Greensboro on the first Monday in March, (it being the sixth day) to the highest bidder at public auction, for cash, the following described land and premises, to-wit:

A house and lot on Cedar street, in the city of Greensboro and fronting on said street 62½ feet and running back about 200 feet and adjoining the lands of T. M. Pickard on the north, Bob Aiken on the south, J. W. Richardson on the west, and others, containing one-half of one acre, more or less. Upon which is situated a nice five room cottage, good well and a barn. It being the home place of Joe Albright, deceased.

This 28th day of January, 1899.

Florida and the South.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2.20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jeckyl Island are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York ond Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyl Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thweatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Shepherd, publisher Agricultural Journal and Advertiser, Elden, Mo., says: "No one will be disappointed in using One Minute Cough Cure for La Grippe." Pleasant to take, quick to act. Howard Gardner.

Parliament Opens.

London, Feb. 7—Parliament has opened and members of Commons proceeded to the house of Lords and heard the queen's speech which was substantially as forecasted.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Asking for Information.

Berlin, Feb. 7—An interpellation supported by a hundred conservatives, centreists and national liberals, asking the chancellor for information regarding the actual position of political and commercial relations with the United States will be discussed Thursday in Reichstag.

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 250 Wabash ave., corner Jackson st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The Inquiry Closed.

Paris, Feb. 7—The criminal section of the court of cassation concluded the inquiry into the Dreyfus trial and formally declared the same closed with today's sitting.

The Ravages of Grip.

That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. Kings New Discovery, When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symtoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. Kings New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst cough, heal the inflamed membranes, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50cts and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drugstore,

BLOOD CURE SENT FREE.

A Cure for Blood and Skin Diseases, Eczema, Pimples, Scrofula, Blood Poison, Cancer, etc.

If you have tried sarsaparillas, patent medicines, and doctored, and still have old, persistent sores, pimples, distressing eruptions of the skin, painful sores on hands, arms or legs, itching sensation, irritating skin troubles, eczema, scrofula, ulcers, contagious blood poison, fever sores, mercurial rheumatism, catarrh, boils, face covered with little sores, cancer or any blood taint, then give B B. B. a trial, because B. B. B.—Botanic Blood Balm—is made for just such cases, and it cures to stay cured, those stubborn blood diseases that other milder medicines fail even to benefit All above named troubles are evidence of bad, diseased blood in the body, and B. B. B. cures because it forces all the poison or impurity or blood humors out of the body, bones and entire system. To removeall doubt of its power to cure we offer to send to any sufferer a sample bottle of B. B. B. absolutely free. B. B. B. is an old, well tried remedy, because we know that it cures to stay cured, for the people cured by B. B. B. years ago are well today and free from all blood impurities.

Cancer, Bleeding, Eating Sores.

Cancer of nose, lip, face, ear or neck, external or internal cancer, bleeding, eating sores, are all cured by B. B. B., the most powerful blood purifier made. All druggists sell B. B. B. at $1 per large bottle. For trial bottle, send two stamps to pay postage and a sample bottle of B. B. B. will be sent by return mail. Address BLOOD BALM CO., 261 Mitchell street, Atlanta, Ga' Describe your symptoms and free personal medical advice will be given.

Hearings Granted Until Thursday.

Washington, Feb. 7—The senate committee on commerce begins consideration of the rivers and harbors bill at two o'clock. Hearings will be granted to senators interested until Thursday. The senate has taken up the Indian appropriation bill.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

O. M. Marshburn, of Raleigh, was in the city today.

The advance sale for the Brehany concert is a record breaker.

Mrs. Glenn, mother of Gen. Jas. D. Glenn, went to Winston at noon today.

W. F. Dowd, of Charlotte, passed through at noon today going to Raleigh.

The musical event of the season is the Brehany Concert tonight. There will be a packed house.

The rain is gone, the mud is frozen and we will all go out to hear the Brehany company tonight.

Reserved seats are about gone but for 50c general admission, you can hear a dollar concert tonight.

Gee whizz. If all the Brehany company are as good as the painist who we heard today, they are simply great.

Maj. Charles M. Stedman, Col. W. H. Osborne, Hon. A. M. Scales and R. R. King went to Raleigh at noon today.

The Charlotte papers say that the ladies of the Brehany company are unusually fine, in fact gives them the highest praise.

Miss Busbee, of Raleigh, passed through the city at noon today enroute to Washington to spend some time visiting friends.

Dr. Willingham will not speak at the Baptist church tomorrow (Thursday) night, as was announced last Sunday. He will likely visit our city later.

In addition to beautifying his show windows with flowers, Lindau has further made his store attractive by employing a pretty lady clerk—Miss Minnie Hamlet, who will be glad to have her friends call.

The Louise Brehany Concert Company, who will delight a large audience of Greensboro music lovers at the academy of music tonight, arrived this morning, and are stopping at the Benbow.

J. M. Hendrix & Co. offer some big bargains in Elkin blankets and winter underwear. See ad on first page in their corner, and you can depend on finding at their store just what you see advertised by them.

N. J. McDuffie, the big furniture dealer, has in his big ad today some special announcements about necessaries for house-keeping. Special offers are made. Give him a call when in need of goods in his line.

Officer Weatherly today arrested a white man for stealing an overcoat from the Southern yard master at this place. It is thought the fellow belongs to the tramping profession. He was trying to sell the coat when arrested.

At a meeting of the directors of the Atlantic & Yadkin railroad, held in Wilmington Monday afternoon, Hon. Warren G. Elliott was elected president. No other officers were elected, so it would seem that nothing can yet be known about who of the employees here, will hold their positions.

Alice Flagg, a female of the very colored persuasion, got decidedly boozy yesterday afternoon and used a poker to disfigure the face of another colored woman. Constable David Scott overpowered the amazon and landed her in jail, where she will be held until a trial and most probably for some time thereafter.

Dr. T. N. Ivey left at noon today for Raleigh to assume his duties as editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, the first issue of which will appear on the 15th inst. The people of Greensboro regret to lose Dr. Ivey as a citizen, than whom none has had a better or larger influence, and wish for him abundant success. Mrs. Ivey and the children will remain in Greensboro for several weeks, probably until spring.

Cotton batting for quilts and comforts, five cents a roll, better quality eight cents, at Thacker & Brockmann's. For the outside you can buy the best quality light prints for five cents, best dark prints for five cents, full yard wide light percale for five cents and a lot of remnants of percale, prints, outing, etc, at very low prices.

THE FUNNY TRAMP.

See Him in The Show "Side Tracked" At The Academy Friday Night.

Theatre-goers at large will no doubt be glad to hear that our old friend, the funny tramp, Horatio Irving Booth, will stop his peregrinations, and lay over for a rest, the freight car in which he travels being "Side Tracked" at the academy of music Friday night. The play is well-known as a good, rattling, sensational comedy, chock-full of fun, fire and ginger and having been entirely re-written and strengthened, played with a fine cast, composed of well known and proficient professionals, is making more of a hit this season than ever. The plot, while not deep, is yet thrillingly interesting and serves to amuse and entertain, as it shows the true inwardness of certain hypocritical human beings, and the innate nobility of character of one of the genus homo called "a tramp" proving the truth of the axioms: "It is not the clothes that makes the men," or "a ragged coat may cover an honest heart."

A complete new outfit of stage effects and picturesque scenery is used this season, including the great railroad switch scene, with its manipulations of the signal switch system, and the transferring of freight cars, making them true to the title, "Side Tracked."

Among the well known members of the company are our old favorites: E. H. O'Connor, Billy Bowers, Gertrude Barnes, Cecile Loraine, Josephine Roberts, John Dobbins, Marguerite Mayfield, R. Edgar Vance and J. J. Brophy. Also L. C. Yeomans and Harry Leslie. For a good, enjoyable evening's entertainment, witness "Side Tracked" next Friday night at the academy of music.

Announcement.

A hearing in the matter of the dispensary bill will be given by a joint meeting of the committees of the senate and house of the general assembly at Raleigh on Thursday, Feb. 9th, at 3 o'clock p. m. This notice is given in order that those who oppose the dispensary for Greensboro may be present and may have the same opportunity to be heard against the dispensary as will be given to those who favor it.

Some Facts About Our MANTELS.

1. They are of handsome designs. We "pick out" the best that a number of the best factories in the country can offer. We have a number of new and handsome designs now in stock.
2. They are made of selected woods. There is a great deal of difference in woods—even in oak woods. Let us show you the difference between a piece of plain, coarse grained oak, and a piece of handsome, quartered oak.
4. The workmanship and finish are faultless. Made and polished like a piano.
Grates and tiles to harmonize with the mantels and all to harmonize with the finish of your room.
4. The people buy them. We furnished one customer over seventy mantels, with tiles. This speaks for itself.

Of Interest to Parents

The little child of George White came near burning to death Saturday night. She was standing in front of the fire when her cotton dress ignited, and but for the quick heroic action of her mother, would have burned to death. Mrs. White had her hands severely burned in putting out the clothing of her little one.—Durham Special to Raleigh Morning Post, Jan. 31.
